July 25th (Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

- Jesus tells us that the Father wants to provide for us so we should never be shy about asking him to give us what we need. Sometimes God uses others to provide for us, and likewise, he sometimes desires to use us to provide for the needs of others.
- In Genesis, God agrees to spare Sodom destruction should he find just ten righteous citizens within its walls. This is an important reminder for us to forgive others, extending to them the same mercy and forgiveness that God has always shown us.

Pope Benedict's Prayer Intentions for August

- The Unemployed and the Homeless. That those who are unemployed, homeless, or in any serious need may find welcome, understanding, and help in overcoming their difficulties.
- Victims of Discrimination, Hunger, and Forced Emigration. That the Church may be a home for all people in need, opening its doors to any who suffer from racial or religious discrimination, hunger, or wars forcing their emigration.

Don't let your worries get the best of you. Remember, Moses started out as a basket case.

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? – Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you know how to save that marriage? Or do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust, and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples that have already separated or divorced. For confidential information about or to register for the August program beginning with a weekend on Aug 6-8 in Schuyler, NE, call 1-888-317-5654 or www.HelpOurMarriage.org on the web

The Saints Speak - Who Said:

"O my Jesus, I beg You on behalf of the whole Church: grant it love and the light of Your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests so that heart and hearts might be brought to repentance and return to you, O Lord. Lord, give us holy priests; You yourself maintain them in holiness. O Divine and Great High Priest, may the power of Your mercy accompany them everywhere and protect them from the devil's traps and snares which are continually being set for the souls of priests. May the power of Your mercy, O Lord, shatter and bring to naught all that might tarnish the sanctity of priests, for you can do all things."

A little more about this contest. It is something I am committed to for the enrichment of all parishioners. I want everyone to know that the books are purchased by me (my gift). The books are excellent resources on the Faith, even though one of them is called Catholicism for Dummies. The others are The Catechism of the Catholic Church and the shorter The Compendium of the Catechism.

4 Stages of Marriage - The 4 stages of marriage are: (1) Romance, (2) Disillusionment, (3) Misery, and (4) Awakening. Many marriages experience the first 3 Stages. Marriages that end in divorce never make it to the 4th Stage of Awakening. Don't give up without learning about the 4th Stage of Awakening. If your marriage suffers from Disillusionment or Misery please contact Retrouvaille. For confidential information about or to register for the August Program beginning with a weekend on August 6-8, 2010 call 1-888-317-5654 or www.HelpOurMarriage.org on the web.

St. ROSE of LIMA NEWS

The Altar Society is going to have a general cleaning day for the church. We have selected Monday, July 26. The time will be from 4pm until done. We are asking all ladies to come when it works for them. Some may prefer to come early and work an hour or two and some may come later. We are taking into consideration that many of the younger ladies work, so by being flexible and doing an evening cleaning we are hoping it will make it easier for them to help. We need to have many hands there to make the work go faster.

Circle leaders will call their ladies to remind them to come and we would like to ask the Knights if a few of the younger men could come and climb the ladders to wipe cobwebs from the stained glass windows and stairwells. It takes some strong arms to hold a mop over ones head from a ladder. This job has not been done for several years.

We would like those having dishes from the Jiggs Dinner and funerals to look in the West entry and pick them up.

Knights of Columbus

Reminder! We will have our regular Knights of Columbus meeting on August 2 at 7:15. Thank you.

Mission Sunday, July 24/25

The Piarist Fathers were founded by St. Joseph Calasanz in Rome in 1617. In addition to the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, the Piarists take a fourth vow to educate youth. They operate between 195 and 200 schools in 32 countries around the world. One of those schools is located in the Appalachian region of eastern Kentucky.

We are asking for your support in helping us not only in our educational work in Appalachia but also in our many outreach programs designed to help those living in poverty, in the mountains.

The three Piarists stationed in eastern Kentucky minister to the Catholics in four counties who number less than 1/2 of 1% of the populations.

St. LAWRENCE NEWS

We are in need of a 5th and 6th grade teacher for PRE for the upcoming school year. Please share your time and talent. Contact Kris Zelasney at 308-773-8234.

Attention all Confirmation students (mostly in grades 7-9): as part of your preparation for Confirmation in the Fall of 2011 you will need to complete service hours for your family, parish and community. There is an opportunity to earn some community hours by painting on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 29-30 from 8:30 am – 1 pm. Also you can help the ABC club put on the Picnic in the Park on Sunday, July 11 from 12 – 4 pm. There are 1 hour shifts or more, so please call to sign up. Please contact Amy Wattier at 773-8251 if you would like to register to participate or have questions.

We have received pledges towards the Nativity Scene (Currently $1,050). We can make this happen with your generosity.

Sacristan volunteers needed for St. Rose and for St. Lawrence.

The sacristan's job has been vacant in St. Rose almost since Archie left for Columbus. He used to open the church Saturday night, Sunday morning, and weekday mornings for Mass. Also, he would set up the bread, water, and wine, the chalice and linens, and would light the candles before weekday Masses. He was also the lector for the weekday Masses. He made sure the votive lights were full, was available to help with funerals and baptisms.

Marina Tworek has asked that we find someone to take her place in St. Lawrence as sacristan. She opened the church before weekday and weekend Masses, and would set up the bread, water, and wine, the chalice and linens for Mass.

If you are interested in helping with any of these (one person need not help with all of them) please call Fr. Frank at the rectory.

Galatians 5:13

For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another.

G.K. Chesterton once remarked that he found it funny, but not ultimately strange, that when he was coming to America for a visit, he was asked to fill out forms stating he was not an anarchist, did not advocate the overthrow of the American government by force, and was not a polygamist. It was funny because he thought of all those honest anarchists, bomb-throwers and polygamists all dutifully giving true replies on this form on their way to destroy American civilization. But it was not strange because, as he said, "America is a nation with the soul of a church." That is, it is the only country in the world founded on a creed rather than ethnicity. Seen in this light, those questions make sense because they are the sort of questions one asks when attempting sort out those who hold to a Jeffersonian democratic creed from those who reject it. In order to make America work as this melting pot for the world it is necessary that the melting pot not melt. And that means something like a creed. America copies this idea from a much older creed: the Catholic creed which is much less subject to melting and capable of domesticating an even wilder variety of humans. In a time when the America that Chesterton knew is much closer to melting its melting pot in the abuse of freedom and notion that "my personal truth of the moment" justifies everything from incest to abortion to euthanasia, it is good to remember that our freedom is given, not so we can do whatever we like, but so that we can love God and each other in word and in truth.

Marriage anniversaries to be celebrated in October 2010 – Please note that the annual Marriage Celebration for couples celebrating anniversaries will be held in October this year. October 3, 2010 will be the Mass and reception at St. Mary's Church in Norfolk and October 10, 2010 at St. Cecilia's Cathedral in Omaha. This is due to the coordination of schedules for Archbishop Lucas and the parishes where this celebration is held.

What will the process of implementation look like?

Once the recognitio is granted, final preparation and publication of the Missal will commence. At that time, catechesis on the new translation and on the liturgy itself will become even more important. Training for priests, music ministers, and other liturgical leaders (liturgy committees and liturgical commissions), as well as formation for all Catholics, will help to ensure the successful implementation of the new text.

You may find additional information on the Roman Missal, Third Edition by visiting:

A minister parked his car in a no-parking zone in a large city because he was short of time and couldn't find a space with a meter. Then he put a note under the windshield wiper that read: "I have circled the block 10 times. If I don't park here, I'll miss my appointment. Forgive us our trespasses."

When he returned, he found a citation from a police officer along with this note "I've circled this block for 10 years. If I don't give you a ticket I'll lose my job. Lead us not into temptation."
